The spelling of the surname as "SCHMID" has been chosen as this is the most common form of spelling encountered in the records reviewed. Other spellings include "SMID" and "SCHMIDT." Since the end of the First World War the once-separate counties of Borsod, Abauj and Zemplén have been joined but only a small part of the original county remains in Hungary, most of it is in Slovakia.

They were married by KÁPLÁN JÁNOS SANDOR or SANDZ at the Templomnak Jézus Szíve (Church of Jesus' Heart) in neighboring Kis-Banyácska; the ceremony was witnessed by JAKAB KAJEL and JÓSZEF UNTENER. They lived in the small village of Hosszú-Láz, 3 miles north of Sátoraljaújhely their entire lives. JÁNOS' occupation is noted as a public servant in records prior to 1885 and as a farmer in most of the records of later dates.

Their first child MÁRIA was baptized 6 February 1879 by KÁPLÁN JÁNOS SANDOR, with sponsors being MIHÁLY KOMENDAS and ERZSÉBET PETERCSAK. At this time JÁNOS is listed as a gazda or farmer. Their first daughter MÁRIA lived just over three years, dying on 22 February 1882 of typhus; she was buried in Hosszú-Láz temető that same day. Their second daughter, another MÁRIA, was baptized the day she was born with Godparents being MIHÁLY HUSZOVSKY and ERZSÉBET PETERCSAK. A new online index to Hungarian Roman Catholic Baptismal Registers has become available.<sup>1</sup> In this resource, a daughter named MARIA is listed as being born on 2 October 1884 and baptized shortly thereafter which is indicative of the short comings of this resource – it is not possible to give birth on the date given as it was followed by another birth 5 months later! Their second daughter to be named MÁRIA was born on 7 March 1885 and lived only a year and a half, dying on 4 September 1886 of smallpox; she was buried the following day in the same cemetery. MÁRIA #3, their third daughter, lived only one day dying of weakness. She was baptized the day she was born by KÁPLÁN MIHÁLY JÓSZEF who officiated at the funeral mass the following day. Her Godparents were MIHÁLY HUSZOVSKY and ERZSÉBET PETERCSAK. Perhaps hoping to change their luck with daughters, they changed names, the fourth was named ANNA. She had the same priest and the same Godparents as MARIA #2 and #3. But ANNA lived only three weeks, dying on 28 March 1889. She was buried two days later with the same priest officiating. All the children that died young were buried in Hosszú-Láz temető. In 1890, their 6th child, a son named JÁNOS was born; he would be the 2nd of their children to live into old age. A fifth daughter, a second ANNA, was born in 1892. The microfilm of the baptismal register entry has the father's name and the mother's given name inadvertently blocked out however the event is confirmed through other records.<sup>2</sup> The maiden name of the mother was UNTENER. The Godparents were MIHÁLY HUSZOVSKY and ERZSÉBET PETERCSAK, the same as for some of JÁNOS and ANNA'S other children. It is not known how long she lived.

ANNA died in 1896 and was buried in Hosszú-Láz temető, now called Széphalomi temető. Her death certificate gives her age as 39 years, which would place her year of birth in 1856/7. Her mother is listed as ANNA TAEM.

JÁNOS remarried five months later; on 21 February 1897 he married MÁRIA NAGYICZKI. MÁRIA was born 10 September 1873 in Kis-Toronya, a small town northeast of Hosszú-Láz; she belonged to the Greek Catholic Church. Her parents were MIKLÓS NAGYICZKI and MÁRIA GOMBOS. They were married by PÉTER CSEHY. Witnesses were ANDREJ GOMBOS and JÁNOS BOGDA, both of Kis-Toronya.<sup>3</sup> They lived in Hosszú-Láz until 1905 where they had two of their own children:

8) ERZSÉBET SCHMID	28 August 1897	Hosszú-Láz, Zemplén
9) BÁLINT SCHMID	16 December 1898	Hosszú-Láz, Zemplén

The birth record extract of ERZSÉBET SCHMID from the local branch of the State Archives gives her place of birth as Sátoraljaújhely.

JÁNOS died in 1905, BÁLINT'S future wife recalls his description as when I was in grade school.<sup>4</sup> Shortly after his death, MÁRIA returned to Kis-Toronya with BÁLINT and ERZSÉBET to live with her family. The house she lived in is still there and continues to be occupied or maintained by NAGYICZKI family members.

MÁRIA is thought to have died around 1963. She was buried in Széphalomi temető and it is believed that the old Hosszú-Láz temető is the cemetery but there is a second Széphalomi temető just a short distance away which had previously been named Kis-Banyácska temető after its town; both villages were merged in 1940 to form Széphalom and both village cemeteries, rather oddly, were given the village's new name.

Kis-Toronya is a small town whose name means Small Tower (in opposition to nearby Nagy-Toronya, meaning Great Tower, and now named Veľké-Tŕňa). In the 19th century the village became the property of the noble SZÉCHY family. It is a few miles northeast of Hosszú-Láz on the east side of the Ronyva Creek. That creek became the border between Hungary and the Slovakia after the First World War. Kis-Toronya has since been renamed Malá-Tŕňa (which means the same thing, just in the Slovak language) and is in the Trebišov okres (district) of the Košický kraj (region).

- 2) JÓSZEF JÁNOS SCHMID: born 6 January 1883; baptized in the Roman Catholic religion on 8 January 1883 by Associate Pastor STIPULA ANTAL; JÓSZEF's Godparents with the advertisement that is reproduced below. He boarded the S.S. Barbarossa on 15 June 1901 and arrived at Ellis Island, New York on 26 June 1901. The Barbarossa was just 5 years old and the New York harbor terminal for Norddeutscher Lloyd were at piers in Hoboken, New Jersey. These had only just been rebuilt after the devastating fire in June 1900 which caused over 300 deaths and set fire to 5 of the lines vessels. His last residence is given as Hosszú-Láz and native tongue as Magyar; we know it as Hungarian. He paid for his own

were MIHÁLY KOMMENDES and ERZSÉBET PETERCSAK, wife of JÁNOS UNTENER.<sup>5</sup> In 1940 he reported having completed just four years of schooling.<sup>6</sup>

The 18 year old JÓSZEF traveled over 650 miles to board a ship in Bremen, Germany. Bremerhaven, some thirty miles distant, is the actual port city for transatlantic voyages from Bremen. JÓSZEF was probably familiar passage and this was his first time to the United States. He declared $12.00 when he arrived. His listed destination as Forest City, Pennsylvania where he was to meet his uncle, JÓSZEF MARCZI. As there was no UNCLE JÓSZEF MARCZI strictly speaking, he could be referring to a distant cousin that was a descendant of KRISZTIÁN and EVA SCHMID through their daughter MARGITA who married JÓSZEF MARCZI and had a large family. Perusal of the 1900 US Census returns of Forest City reveal no one with that name though a large part of those returns are illegible. Likewise, the 1910 census returns sheds no light on the mysterious JÓSZEF MARCZI. He could have also been advised to have such a reply ready when asked that question.

JÓSZEF had a traveling companion by the name of JÓSZEF CSAJKOVSAKI who was also going to Forest City. CSAJKOVSAKI was from Bereczki, Hungary and was going to Forest City where his brother-in-law PAUL VORCZKY lived.<sup>7</sup>

The S.S. Barbarossa was launched in 1896, one of the first of the new Barbarossa-class vessels that accommodated a large amount of cargo and an impressive number of passengers that were separate from the cargo areas, creating a much quieter ride. The cabins were located on a three-deck superstructure amidships. Built by Blohm & Voss of Hamburg for Norddeutscher Lloyd Line (North German Lloyd Line), it measured 526' by 60'. The ship was seized by the US during the First World War and renamed the S.S. Mercury.

County, New Jersey before moving in with their son JOHN on his farm in Branchburg Township, Somerset County before 1940. The exact relationship has yet to be determined but the DUDIS family can be found in records of

Hosszú-Láz and Kis-Toronya. Census records give both Poland and Austria as her place of birth.<sup>8</sup> She was married to STANLEY ZAWATSKI (b.1867-ca1945). Nenje had six children: two who died young; two sons, JOHN, (b.1899, Neshanic; d.20 May 1982) married to SOPHIE LUPINSKI (b.1904), and JOSEPH (b.1890, Elizabeth, NJ; d.15 August 1976) who was a deaf-mute, neither son had children; and two daughters, BARBARA (b.1902) and HELEN. BARBARA married JOHN STALA (b.1909; d.29 April 1986) in 1930, and was living with her in-laws ALBERT and KATIE STALA on their farm in Branchburg Township, Somerset County which was near the farm of her brother JOHN. STANLEY and MARY ZAWATSKI are interred

JOSEPH JOHN SMITH visited with his Nenje MARY DUDIS ZAWATSKI (1869-1966), translated as Aunt, nене is also a term of affection that does not necessarily imply a blood relation. They lived in Neshanic Station, Hillsborough Township, Somerset with their sons and son-in-law JOHN STALA in Sacred Heart Cemetery, section 13, plot 4, Hillsborough, NJ.

JOSEPH moved to Main Street, Forest City, Susquehanna County, Pennsylvania to work in the northern anthracite coal mines. The 30+ year old lumber town of Pentecost had given way to the coal-driven town of Forest City by 1885 and demands for miners were flowing to Eastern Europe within five years. From just 50 people in 1865 to over 2,300 in 1890, the population kept soaring; by the time JOSEPH arrived there were over 4,300 residents! JOSEPH met ANNA KUTARNYA in Forest City and they married there in 1905. The more than 6,000 of 1920 kept growing until the Great Depression hit. By the mid-1930s, mining had stopped completely, the population dwindled and the town closed down for over a decade. Their story continues in their own file.

- 6) JÁNOS SCHMID: born 6 June 1890. At the age of fifteen he headed to join his brother in America. He left the Kingdom of Hungary at the independent port city of Fiume, on 12 July 1905 and arrived in New York on the S.S. Carpathia on 30 July 1905. Fiume, synonymous with Rijeka, was much closer than Bremen at just over 350 miles from Hosszú-Láz. Now located in northern Croatia, Fiume competed with the Adriatic port city of Trieste in Austria.

awhile. He arrived just two weeks before his older brother's marriage on 15 August 1905. The marriage announcement appearing in the Forest City Press relates that JOHN is from New Jersey.

By April 1910 JOHN had moved to Forest City, Susquehanna County, Pennsylvania and was living with his brother, JOSEPH. He married ANN MATORCHO. He filed a Declaration of Intention for naturalization on 20 May 1914 which gives the following information: he was a motorman, light complexion, gray eyes, 5'6", and 145 pounds and had light brown hair. He is living on Railroad Street in Forest City at this time. His Petition for Naturalization, dated 6 June 1916, lists his wife, ANNIE and daughter IRENE. At this time his occupation is a waiter. His Oath of Allegiance is dated 22 September 1916.<sup>9</sup> On 4 November 1919 he was elected to the Forest City Borough Council.<sup>10</sup> The 1920 census has him at 528 Higgins Alley, Forest City working as a machinist in a railroad shop.<sup>11</sup> His native tongue is given as Magyar.

JÁNOS boarded Cunard Line's S.S. Carpathia for the voyage; the ship would become famous in coming years for participated in the rescue of passengers from the R.M.S. Titanic disaster in 1912. Upon his arrival in this country, JOHN SMITH followed his older brother's path to Forest City, Pennsylvania with a stop in Neshanic Station where he lived with Nenje for

He lived in Forest City all his life and attained a level of prominence in that community. He was a member of Lodge #30 of the National Slovak Society and served as its treasurer in 1933.<sup>12</sup> He was on the Recreation Board of the city for some time and at times was the Board's President.<sup>13</sup> By 1930 he had built a business and residence at 609 Main Street in what is still known as the Smith Building.<sup>14</sup> In 1930 it was a grocery store, by 1932 he had expanded:

*JOHN SMITH Phonographs, Records, Musical Instruments, Confectionery and Cigars, Washing Machines,
Long Distance Moving Sedans for Hire, Forest City Taxi Service, Phone 1153*

JOHN was the chairman for the Silver Jubilee of the Slovak Catholic Church of Saint Michael the Archangel (701 Delaware Street) on 29 September 1938. That same year finds him in business listings under both Auto Services and Radios & Electronics categories.<sup>15</sup> He died in September 1962. JOHN and ANN are buried in Sacred Heart Cemetery.
